THE Eagle AND THE Hawk

WHAT IS THE STRANGE MISSION OF THIS LEAN, WEATHERBEATEN TEXAS RANGER? WHAT PURPOSE COULD HE HAVE FOR SPYING UPON THIS SMALL CAVALRY TROOP CAMP OF THE CONFEDERATE ARMY? -- EVEN HE DOES NOT KNOW THE REAL REASON, AS HE CROUCHES IN THE SHADOWS WAITING FOR THE LAST NOTES OF TAPS TO SOUND... ONE BY ONE, THE TENTS GO DARK... THAT IS, ALL BUT ONE...

...A LONE SENTRY ENTERS TO INVESTIGATE...

TAPS MEANS LIGHTS OUT, SIR!

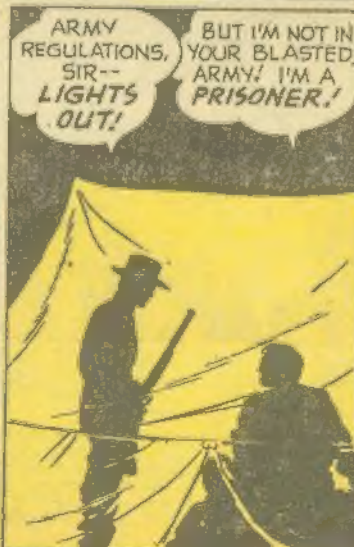

THAT'S ABSURD! I NEVER RETIRE BEFORE ELEVEN-THIRTY! NOW BE GOOD ENOUGH TO DROP THE NETTING, SOLDIER-- YOU'RE LETTING IN MOSQUITOES!

ARMY REGULATIONS, SIR-- LIGHTS OUT!

BUT I'M NOT IN YOUR BLASTED ARMY! I'M A PRISONER!

PUT OUT THAT LIGHT!

OH-- ALL RIGHT!

SUDDENLY, THE TEXAS RANGER GOES INTO ACTION! CRAWLING STEALTHILY TOWARD THE CAMP, HE ROLLS SOME DRIED GRASS AND A ROCK INTO HIS HANDKERCHIEF, TIES IT, AND SETS FIRE TO IT...

...THEN HE HEAVES THE BURNING MISSILE INTO A PILE OF HAY, STARTLING THE FEEDING HORSES AND THE SENTRY ON GUARD...

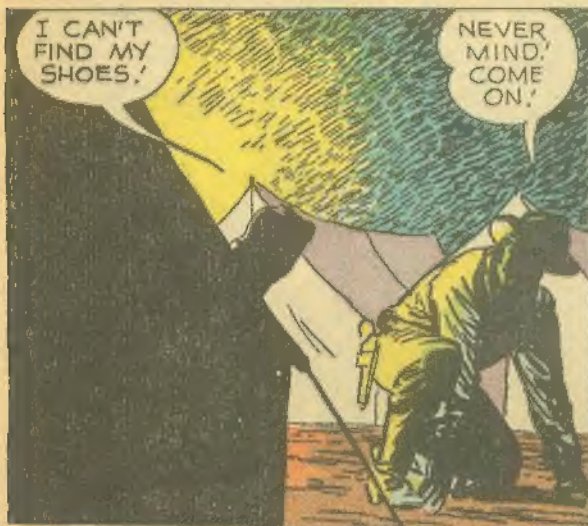

A MOMENT OF DIVERSION IS SET UP FOR CROYDEN AS SEVERAL SENTRIES RUN TO EXTINGUISH THE FLAMES... HE RUNS TOWARD THE REAR OF THE CAMP, UNNOTICED...

Meet the Stars

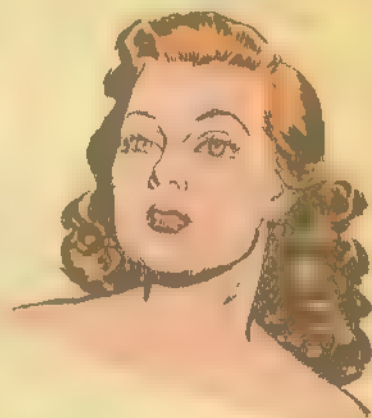

JOHN PAYNE (Todd Croyden)

Upon graduating from high school in his home town of Roanoke, Virginia, John Payne enrolled at the University of Virginia . . . He became interested in campus theatricals and later transferred to the drama school at Columbia University . . . While working at the University's McMullan Theatre, Payne was offered a job as stock player for the Shuberts at $50 a week . . . He took it, and while playing with Beatrice Lillie in "At Home Abroad," he was offered a film contract by Goldwyn . . . After completing a few pictures his contract expired and he signed with Paramount . . . During his film career he has starred with the top names of Cinemaland . . . In a variety of movie roles, John Payne always gives a stirring performance!

RHONDA FLEMING (Madeline Danzeeger)

Red-haired, green-eyed Rhonda Fleming, whose dainty feet fit quite comfortably in the golden slippers of a movie Cinderella, is one of Hollywood's loveliest stars . . . Her first big break came when she played opposite Bing Crosby in "A Connecticut Yankee" . . . Soon after completion of the Mark Twain story, Rhonda was given the co-starring role opposite Bob Hope in "The Great Lover" . . . Rhonda was always interested in dramatics, but to be on the safe side in the event her theatrical career did not materialize, the farsighted miss included shorthand, typing, and business administration in her studies . . . She is five feet, seven inches tall and weighs 125 pounds . . . Judging from Rhonda's latest pictures, she'll never have to put to use that secretarial course.

DENNIS O'KEEFE (Whitney Randolph)

Dennis O'Keefe's first ambition was to become a big league ball player . . . Today he could still qualify as a minor league pitcher . . . He is equally adept at golf, shooting in the low 70's . . . After graduation from Hollywood High School, he attended the University of Southern California for two years . . . Dennis was an outstanding student, but upon the death of his father he was forced to leave school . . . He worked at a number of odd jobs, failing to make much headway until he tried his hand at writing . . . After selling several stories to pulp magazines, he obtained a job with Hal Roach as a gag man . . . This led to various jobs as an extra . . . and before long he was spotted by a director and was cast in a bit part . . . After his initial break the road to fame was smooth riding for Dennis O'Keefe.

SCREEN SCRAPBOOK

After safely completing his final aerial acrobatic stunt for "The Hawk and the Arrow," one of the most dangerous thrill scenes ever filmed for motion pictures, Burt Lancaster went home for a romp on the floor with his small son. He reared upward under the corner of a table (playing bucking horse, no doubt) and cut a painful gash on the side of his handsome noggin!

In "Young Man With a Horn," Doris Day is seen singing with an orchestra at the famous Aragon Ballroom in Ocean Park, California. Three years ago, before she was discovered for motion pictures, Miss Day was a singer at the same night spot with Les Brown's band.

Just before Jane Wyman left Cinema-land for New York, after finishing "The Glass Menagerie," she loaned a pair of her shoes to Dorothy Lamour, who had lost a heel off one of her own during a party at Jane's house. The next day the shoes came back with a beautiful orchid in each one and a note saying, "Wouldn't I just love to keep these! I've always wanted to be in the shoes of an Academy Winner!"

Jane kept the orchids and sent the shoes back to Dorothy.

INSIDE STUFF . . . The little Scottish farm that Richard Todd talked about so much in his screen hit, "The Hasty Heart," is almost a dead ringer for the sensational young star's own private dream

Some 800 years ago Todd's ancestors lived in Scotland, and his big ambition—ever since he can remember having any ambition at all—has been to buy land in Scotland. He had in mind a bit of an island off the Scottish coast, some 200 acres in all, known as Inch Morrach or Drunkards Island. He doesn't know whether or not his ancestors ever lived on the now almost uninhabited isle, but he would like to live there.

All he needs, says Todd, is enough money for the purchase, and he suspects that he'll probably have it by the time he completes "Lightning Strikes Twice," which is now in production at Warners.

NEWS FROM HOLLYWOOD . . . Nancy Olson, young Paramount actress, has been elevated to star billing in "Mr. Music," the recently completed Bing Crosby film . . . MGM's "Nancy Goes to Rio," with Jane Powell and Ann Southern, is chock full of hit tunes you'll be singing after you see the film. MGM Records has released an album of music from the soundtrack of the picture . . . Billy Eckstine, another MGM record favorite, is in Hollywood to make a picture . . . Don Cornell, recently the singer for Sammy Kaye's orchestra, has branched out on his own and now Hollywood is bidding for him

Herr Danzeeger,
Your letter acknowledging receipt of the money at hand of your scheme of enlisting the aid of General Segura to delay American arms which might be sent to the aid of Guarez meets with our approval. It will give us much needed time to bring up our own forces. We need not warn you of the insupportable danger to our cause should Segura find out that he is being duped. He would immediately turn his troops against us. I join you in looking forward to the day when we shall salute His Majesty Maximilian as Emperor of Mexico and Texas.

MOMENTS LATER... AT THE BOTTOM OF THE CLIFF...

FEATURE FILMS

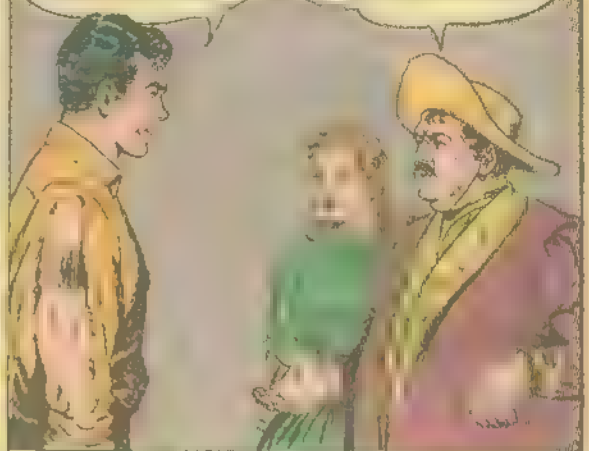

SUDDENLY, HALF DEAD FROM EXPOSURE TO THE SUN AND 14 HOURS' TREATMENT ABOARD THE MUSTANGS, TODD STUMBLES ONTO THE SCENE.

"OH - YOU HAVE COME BUT WHERE IS YOUR FRIEND - HE OF THE GREAT LUCK?"

"HIS LUCK RAN OUT TODAY! HE'S DEAD! BUT, THANKS TO HIM, I'M NOT!"

"COME, TEJANO-- WHERE IS THE PROOF YOU PROMISED?"

"LAST NIGHT I HAD A PAPER IN MY HAND SIGNED BY THE FRENCH MINISTER OF WAR! IT SAID THAT DANZEEGER WAS HIS AGENT."

"THE PAPER WHERE IS SHE?"

"GO ON, CAPTAIN SHOW IT TO HIM!"

"I HAVEN'T GOT IT BUT I SAW IT! THAT'S WHY THEY TOLD ME TO W.D. HORSES LIKE THEY DO TO BROOKS! THEY DIDN'T WANT ME TO TELL YOU."

"BUT YOU CANNOT PROVE WHAT YOU SAY."

"THAT'S BECAUSE HE'S LYING!"

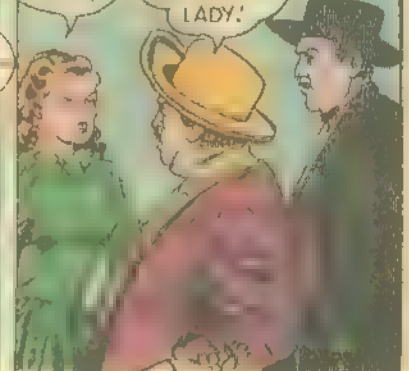

"YOU PROMISED TO LET HIM GO NOT TO HARM HIM!"

"WOULD YOU BELIEVE ME, GENERAL IF I TOLD YOU?"

"SI SEGURA TAKES THE WORD OF A LADY!"

"MADELINE!"

"THE AMERICAN TELLS THE TRUTH! MY HUSBAND AND I ARE AGENTS OF THE FRENCH! IF YOU SEIZE TEXAS, YOU WILL TAKE IT FOR FRANCE-- NOT MEXICO!"

"FOO!! BETRAYER"

"TODD SEES WHAT REACHING FOR HIS GUN. HE BEATS HIM TO THE DRAW..."

"TODD! LOOK OUT!"

"BANG!"

"DANZEEGER DRAWS AND FIRES! BUT THE BULLET MEANT FOR TODD IS STOPPED BY MADELINE..."

"TODD..."

AS SHE CRUMPLES IN TODD'S ARMS, PANDEMONIUM BREAKS LOOSE. DANZEEGER AND HIS MEN SHOOT THEIR WAY THROUGH SEGURA'S SOLDIERS TO GET TO THEIR HORSES.

HERE, TAKE CARE OF HER. I'LL BE BACK.

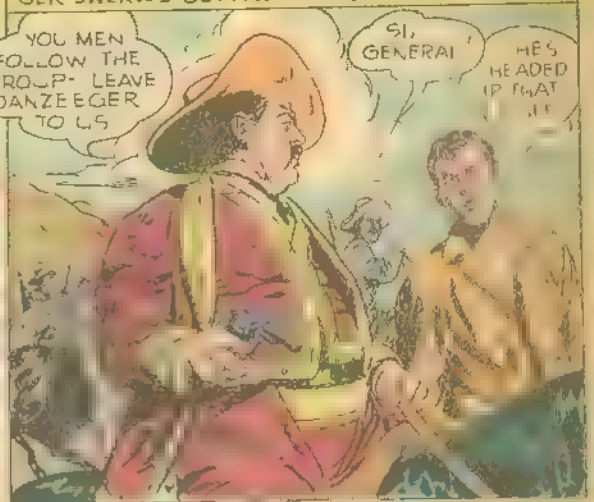

TODD JOINS SEGURA'S TROOP IN THE PURSUIT. DANZEEGER SWERVES OUT AND DESERTS HIS MEN...

YOU MEN FOLLOW THE GROUP. LEAVE DANZEEGER TO US.

SI, GENERAL.

HE'S HEADED UP THAT HILL.

PRESENTLY...

WAIT, GENERAL - YOU WON'T GET FIFTY FEET UP THAT HILL. YOU'LL BE AN EASY TARGET FOR HIM!

BUT IT WILL SOON BE DARK... HE WILL SLIP AWAY!

SEGURA! COME BACK! COME BACK!

HE MUST NOT ESCAPE. UH-H--
